B.A.No.7724 of 2007

Dated this the 14th day of December 2007

After detailed discussions at the Bar, the learned counsel for the petitioner makes only one request. He prays that he may be permitted to withdraw this petition without prejudice to his rights to surrender before the learned Magistrate and seek regular bail. Request accepted. This bail application is dismissed as not pressed.

2. The learned counsel for the petitioner prays that there may be a direction to the learned Magistrate to consider the application for bail expeditiously. Every court must do the same. When an accused person surrenders and applies for bail after giving prior notice to the Prosecutor in charge of the case, such application for bail has got to be considered expeditiously. No special directions are necessary in these circumstances.
